

THE DARK MIRROR

FREE ADMISSION

Open to the public

Waco's Horror Film Festival

Dawn of the Dead* (1978)

Sat., Oct. 16

Poltergeist***

Fri., Oct. 22

War of the Worlds* (2005)

Sat., Oct. 30

6-9 p.m.

Bosque River Stage at McLennan Community College

Concessions available. Outside food and drink permitted.

Learn how these films have served as a “dark mirror” that reflects American culture through a brief discussion about the film’s historical context and cultural significance. The final film will be followed by a panel discussion with horror experts:

Horror Fiction Writers

Lee Thomas, winner of the Bram Stoker Award and the Lambda Literary Award

Nate Southard, popular horror novelist

Joe McKinney, popular zombie and thriller novelist

Local Communication Experts

Matt Cardin, MCC instructor and horror author

Nick Webb, MCC instructor

Dr. Jim Kendrick, Baylor professor

www.TheDarkMirror.net

www.twitter.com/The\_Dark\_Mirror

*Viewer discretion advised. These films contain intense scenes of violence, gore and/or supernatural horror.